

NAVIGATING THE TRANSITION PROCESS

Planning Workshop for Educators and Families
Free 2 Day Workshop

The goal of this two day workshop is to help educators and families broaden their understanding of the special education secondary transition process in Iowa and how to participate effectively.

Participants will receive four parent transition planning modules including all the training materials and resources that the Iowa Department of Education and PACER have created. These include:

- Road to Discovery: Transition to Adult Living, Learning and Working
- From Disability to Possibility: The Power of High Expectations in Transition Planning
- Exploring and Preparing for Work as an Adult
- Taking the Next Step: Planning for Success in Postsecondary Education.

Participants will also be provided information and resources through local community service provider panel presentations. Participants will use these materials to share information and facilitate other educators' and families' understanding of the transition process.

Graduate credit and recertification credit is available. Lunch and materials are provided.
